PROFESSIONAL LEAGUES MEET

Violet Quarterback, Nathan Macklovitz of Gotham

He calls the signals for the New York University grid eleven.

FOOTBALL FANS

—BILL LEWIS—

Hockeyists hereabouts are making every preparation for the commencement of the winter puck season, with workouts coming thick and fast, for most every club in the city. With practically all leagues planning to open around the first of December, there is now too much time left for practice, so that every team is seriously going about the business of whipping into shape the talent on hand. The senior amateurs will present a somewhat different appearance this semester, with a three-team league operating the entire being Superiors, Varisty and Dominions, the latter formerly known as Crescents.

Superiors and Dominions practice tonight, this being the initial session for them, while Varisty of Alberta's hospitals are working out regularly at their own rink on the campus. All three clubs are looking forward to a successful season.

Eskimos likewise are expecting a good winter in the professional Northwest circuit, which opens here a week from Saturday. Rumor has it that Earl Robertson, goalkeeping star of the last two years and now a member of Windsor Bulldogs of the International League, will return to the city due to a contract held by Owner Duke Neale.

The Juniors are making all preparations for the new campaign, with workouts heavily scheduled this week-end, starting with one tonight. With the Western Athletic Club, Rangers and South side entered, a really good junior circuit is anticipated.

Feature trade of yesterday's edition at the meeting of minor league baseball heads involved Bruce Campbell, who went from St. Louis Browns to Cleveland. Campbell, although only 27, was a couple of days with Earl Mack's touring big-league, made many friends in the city this fall.

Whether Sarnia can beat Regina or vice versa is something football fans are debating as the date of the Dominion final nears. The big game, which will be played at Toronto Saturday, finds a powerful Western team lined up against one of the strongest outfits the East has produced in many years—here the doubt regarding the probable outcome.

Until some of the hockey leagues get to going there is not much in the way of sportive spectacles for Edmonton fans, as wrestling and boxing cards are not held within the next couple of weeks.

Maritime Officials Say League Able To Solve Problem

AMHERST, N.S., Nov. 22.—Belief that the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association can work out its problem without jeopardizing the chances of a winning team being eligible for the Allan Cup competition despite Canadian amateur hockey association warheads, was expressed by Sheriff C. D. Shively of Amherst, secretary of the Maritime branch of the A.A.U. of C. on his return home from Toronto.

Concerning the proposed new national association to handle track and field events, Sheriff Shively said this did not necessarily mean that branches would be organized immediately. He said the new association probably would have a big place in Canadian sport as there was a remarkable increase in interest in track and field within the last two or three years.

EXPECT FINE HOCKEY CLUB AT RED DEER

Four Players Leave, But Much New Material Again on Hand

RED DEER, Nov. 22.—Red Deer Intermediate hockey team, should go places this winter judging from the array of talent which is in the city. The new Big Five League made up of Lacombe, Shetter, Red Deer, Inland and Bashaw promises to be a well balanced group and the local club has had word from the players of the team, which is expected to keep this sport in the city in the winter.

The winter's team will be reduced by the absence of four members who will do their puck pushing elsewhere this season. Jack Alnoworth, red-headed forward, is expected to leave for the jump to Drumheller and will turn out with the Maritimes senior company this winter. Allan Graham, also a forward, is expected to leave for the jump to the senior company of the Maritimes, in the south of the province. The team which was formed on date is said to be in Woodstock, Ont., and will likely return there this winter.

NEW PLAYERS
All the other players of last winter's team should have and will all be trying out for a place. They are: Harry Stanway, who guarded the net; Norm Rees, defenseman; George C. Murray, forward; and Milt Haynes, forward. A home-town product, Jack Shively, played great hockey for Vegreville last winter, but again will be back again as a defenseman.

According to the firing line, Jack Sinclair, who graduated recently from the University of Alberta, is a hockey candidate for a defense post. Sinclair played for a Calgary junior team last year but broke an arm early in the season. A new member of the team, formerly goalie with the Thunder, is expected to be a smart net minder. Another new candidate is Bert Croft, formerly of Edmonton, who was prominent in the northern city in commercial hockey. He can play on the forward line or on defense. In addition to this talent some of the younger players around the city who have passed the juvenile age limit will be in the field as well.

NAME CHECK SOON

The hockey club expect to appoint a coach for the team shortly and as soon as there is ice in the rink the boys will all be out showing their stuff. League plans originally called for opening the season about the end of the month. In view of the mild weather it will likely be later than that before fans see any hockey here.

These two men hold the directing reins of Chicago Blackhawks as the Stanley Cup champions seek to repeat this season. Loughlin is a westerner and was rated a star player in his day.

'Dream Game' May Never Be Played

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Enthusiasm for another dream game of the gridiron—a post-season between Minnesota's mighty army and Ohio State's special "Buckeyes" for charity—last night crashed headlong into a western conference rule prohibiting such a contest.

Big 10 authorities were convinced the game, which its sponsors plan for Ohio State's huge double-decked stadium Dec. 1, with a possible attendance of 80,000, would never materialize.

Wichita City Governor George White, who was bending every effort to enlist the interest of Governor Floyd Olson, of Minnesota, and others in such a grand winter conference officials said they saw no possibility of it ever being played.

DOMINIONS STAGE WORKOUT TONIGHT

There will be a workout of the Dominion senior hockey club at 8:30 o'clock.

All former members of the Crescents will be out in addition to former St. Lawrence-Canadian. Any players from other junior or senior clubs desiring a tryout are also invited to be in charge of this workout, with physical "work" on skates being one of the features of the night's training program.

Open Skating On Great Lakes As Ice Is Tardy

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 22.—Favorable weather usually mild weather, navigation on the Great Lakes is moving along through waters that were ice-locked at this time last year. Only nine days remain before the regular vessel insurance expires and a high scale of premiums go into effect.

The open water has been a point of the steamship companies, according to Daniel Bock, agent for Canada Steamship Lines here and it is expected greater usage will be moved this way if the vessels are able to continue moving as they have to date.

Red Deer Midget Hockey Organized

RED DEER, Nov. 22.—New officers of the Red Deer midget hockey club are: Hon. president, Rev. D. Whyte; Sec. president, Duwayn Holmes; vice-president, Duncan Sutherland; secretary-treasurer, L. McLaughlin; and M. L. Kenney will manage the boys again this season. Bill Martin has been appointed coach and Andy Burns will train the team. New uniforms will be bought and the color will be red and white. The team this season will be known as the Red Deer.

It will not be long before the boys will be getting into action, likely on the rink owned by Messrs. Kennedy. If possible, a midget league will be arranged with neighboring towns. With financial support they will be up to a fine start when the season opens.

Providence Reds Defeat Beavers 2-1 Rough Battle

PROVIDENCE, R.I., Nov. 22.—Rhode Island Reds gained undisputed possession of second place in the Canadian-American Hockey League by defeating Quebec 2-1, last night.

The contest was a battle of penalties, with each team taking full advantage of the other's short-handed play.

Quebec scored first in the fifth minute of the first period with Jack Tasson converting Hub Wilson's pass from behind the cage. Andy Mulligan of Winnipeg was in the penalty box at the time.

Early in the third period, the Beavers had two men in the box and the Reds scored twice in less than a minute. Gus Rivers tied the score and Hugh Harrington put the Reds in the lead.

Big Andy Mulligan figured in the summary with an assist on Harrington's goal.

BUFFALO HAS TRIUMPH OVER WINDSOR, 5-3

Early Goal Lead Gives Bison Crown Victory in Hard Battle

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 22.—Building up a formidable three-goal lead in the first 15 minutes of the opening period, Buffalo Blazing rode to a 5-3 victory over Windsor Bulldogs in last night's International hockey league fixture.

A penalty shot goal by Art Berlet early in the first period started the Buffalo rampage. The puck hit Robertson's left arm and dropped into the cage. Eight minutes later Berlet scored 2-1 in. Graham Teasdale made it 3-0 for Bisons when he sank Dick Benson's rebound.

Clarence Drouillard gave Buffalo a goal late in the third when he passed from Carson Cooper. Carson Cooper and Frank Steele scored in succession to reduce the Buffalo margin to one goal. Cliff Barton eased the pressure on the Buffalo line when he intercepted a pass from Wetzko, and hurried in from right wing to score.

C.G.A. Nominee Burns is Runner-up in Night Tally

CALGARY, Nov. 22.—For another two years T. R. Riley, labor representative, will serve Calgary as city commissioner.

In the civic elections held Wednesday, Commissioner Riley was elected by a majority of 2,340 over his Civic Government Association opponent, James T. Burns. The vote was 12,751 for Riley and 10,411 for Burns.

Three independent candidates sought the commission—Arthur C. Graves, C. W. Reese and Fred Nutt—and never constituted a threat to the two leaders. The election was conducted under the proportional representation system, with third choice deciding the commission's poll.

It was the heaviest poll in the history of a Calgary civic election, more than 25,000 voters casting ballots.

There was no mayoral contest yesterday. Mayor Andrew Davison, labor, having been elected to a two-year term a year ago.

Frederic J. White, M.L.A., and Alberta Labor leader, was re-elected to the aldermanic office along with A. J. L. Emswiler and R. H. K. H. Independent candidates sought the aldermanic office, but none of them had a chance of being elected. Alderman W. A. Lincoln, who headed the D. J. McLean, E. J. McLean and P. F. Freese, Alderman White had a poll of 4,122, second on the list. The lone woman who sought election to the board, Miss J. E. Fox, endorsed by P. F. Freese, was defeated. Leonard Anderson, who headed the D. J. McLean, was elected and re-elected.

In the school board election, Dr. B. Singleton, C.G.A., was elected and re-elected. T. R. Alderman, labor, carried certain election, but the count was far from complete this morning.

It is planned to make the city commission a permanent appointment at the beginning of 1935, defeated. The vote was for 10,362 against 12,750.

SCIENCE SAVES WOMAN WITH STONY HEART

Hazardous Surgical Operation is Proving Success

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—San Francisco's woman with a "heart of stone" set in an invalid's chair Wednesday and heard two surgeons tell Dr. Gray had opened a "window" into her heart in a delicate operation that saved her life.

The woman, Mrs. Regina Brann, 40, smiled as she said she was recovering "in a most extraordinary way" from the hazardous operation 12 days ago.

"My appetite is good and I'm feeling better than I have for six years," she said.

SIX KNOWN CASES

Dr. Harold Brown, who performed the operation assisted by Dr. A. L. Brown, found more than 100 aortic aneurysms, a condition in which the heart dilates that only six previous cases of persons with "hearts of stone" are known to medical history.

"We look off a very large section of the sternum from about the third to the sixth ribs," Dr. Brann said. "The right side of the heart was removed. The danger of safety of the heart was then a fragile structure between the lungs on the left side. The pleura entered into the wound and under the heart."

In the other side appeared the heart from the right side. This little space lies between the lungs. FOUND STONY HEART

"We found this state: the pericardium, when hit, surrounded the heart. We pushed away the pleura on the left side. The pleura entered into the wound and under the heart."

"We gradually got off a little piece and the heart seemed to lie under the calcium partition like a nut under ice."

"We chipped off calcium from aortic-ventricular septum. The patient had been in bed for a long time with her blood pressure falling. But as soon as the calcium was removed she improved. Her blood pressure and color got better."
